

All services from Eagle Medicine Psychic Readings, LLC with Psychic Medium Christina Dawn Eagle are subject to all of the following:

- Code of Ethics (pages 1-2)
- Service Terms and Conditions (pages 2-4)
- Cancellation, Rescheduling and Refund Policies (page 4)
- Legal Disclaimer (pages 5-8)

CODE OF ETHICS:

- 1.) All Readings are 100% confidential and I NEVER disclose ANY information to anyone, not even if someone had a Reading with me or not. I take my client's trust very seriously and honor that with deep humility, honor and respect.
- 2.) I am not a licensed therapist, psychiatrist, or medical doctor and can't ethically give medical diagnosis or psychological counseling. I offer Spiritual Guidance, Soul Coaching, Reiki Healing and other non traditional holistic healing modalities meant to supplement but not replace any traditional medical, legal or psychiatric care.
- 3.) I will not predict anyone's death. I explain why in more depth in #5 of the Legal Disclaimer on pages 5 and 6.
- 4.) When clients ask me to "remote view" someone else (a third party) over age 18 and ask me to share personal details about them but the third party person hasn't given consent I'm very respectful of the third party person's privacy. I maintain a strong ethical standard to keep my vibration as high as possible and will only share what will help the client or the "sitter" on a soul level without violating the third party person's privacy. Readings are focused on the client not non-participating 3rd parties.
- 5.) There are two exceptions to #4 above. The first is if someone has committed a crime. I'm perfectly comfortable remote viewing criminals without their consent and have helped many clients get justice, closure and prosecution of the criminals. The second exception is if someone is a missing person. I often have family members of missing persons seek my services. If it's done for the sake of justice remote viewing is not unethical.

- 6.) I will not psychically snoop on someone’s ex for the purpose of someone getting revenge. Sometimes we don’t get the closure we need and staying attached to their energy is not helpful. I don’t do those types of Readings. I help people heal and enable them to move forward not go backwards.
- 7.) I do not participate in “returning your twin flame” candle, work, curse claims or other scams. We ALL have free will and if an ex doesn’t want to come back no one can force them to.
- 8.) I seek to give each client 1000% in every session. Part of my code of ethics is to strive to give each client everything they need in one session. I do not upsell other products or services, pressure clients to book again, use fear tactics or reach out to people unsolicited to book again.
- 9.) Over 25% of my clients are regulars and I make sure that our work together isn’t unintentionally making them codependent or disempowering them from making any of their own life decisions. I help people evolve on a soul level and we are always evolving through all our experiences. Failures and all. There are deep lessons there. I love supporting and working with my clients and am mindful to recognize if our work together moves towards codependency. It’s more important for me to assist, help guide and support people with their soul growth than to book more sessions.
- 10.) There are often times when after a Reading a client wants to book again right away, sometimes even the next week or sooner. In between each Reading it’s often important for clients to take some time to let things sink in and play out before seeking more direction. I don’t turn anyone truly in need away, but if a client wants me to make all their decisions for them that’s not a healthy dynamic and it negates the fact that we all have free will and can limit one’s soul growth.
- 11.) I do not offer winning lottery ticket number services. Yes I’ve been asked.

SERVICE TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

- 1.) Same day/week appointments are not available. This is mentioned twice in all my listings but I still get people demanding their session the same week, sometimes even the same day. I have a packed schedule and can't book any tighter. Many of my clients have found that when first booking their session and didn't read the terms mentioned in the listing about when I'm scheduling for, after initially being frustrated about having to wait their Reading happened exactly when Spirit needed it to.

2.) I am generally booking live Readings 2-3 months in advance. Many of my regular clients get Reading packages so we can get them all easily scheduled at their ideal times and they save up to a 30% discount on packages.

3.) Before checkout please be sure to add your correct phone number and email address to your order, preferably a cell phone so I can send you a text reminder the day before (in continental US only, outside US clients receive an email reminder). Sometimes the phone numbers on clients PayPal account isn't the correct phone number. If you live outside the US or Canada please include your country code that goes in front of the phone number. If you have not provided the correct phone number and I am unable to reach you via phone, video call or email and the appointment is missed with no notice the session is not eligible to be rescheduled or refunded.

4.) My work schedule is 6am-3pm Eastern Standard Time (same time zone as NYC) Mon-Fri. I do not offer weekend appointments.

5.) After checkout if you booked a live Reading I'll be in touch via email within 48 business hours to schedule your appointment. If you don't see it in your inbox you may need to check your spam folder. The scheduling email will be sent from MediumChristinaDawnEagle@gmail.com.

6.) Once we schedule your appointment. if inside the USA, I send text reminders the day before. International clients get an email reminder.

7.) Please notify me if you live outside the continental USA. For international video sessions the options I use are Zoom, Skype, WhatsApp and Botim(for many of my middle eastern clients). I have an Android phone so I cannot Facetime. As a courtesy to clients when using Zoom I record video sessions to my cloud and save them for 2 weeks so clients can watch it again and download it if they'd like.

8.) Christina Dawn Eagle reserves the right to refuse service to anyone for any reason at any time. Even halfway through a Reading if someone is especially difficult, negative, belligerent or insulting. Sometimes this happens before we even schedule their appointment because their language in our scheduling emails before we even connect speaks volumes. In these cases I immediately send a full refund. If I sense our energy is not compatible or they are looking for something that I don't offer I let them know immediately that I don't feel we are currently a good match. No amount of money is worth being disrespected, bullied, insulted or drained by people. This also rarely happens when someone isn't respectful of my boundaries and the things I mentioned in my Code of Ethics. I won't be pushed into doing something unethical. When this happens I first deliberately attempt to redirect the Reading focus towards something more helpful for soul growth, healing and alignment. If they can't engage with me at that higher vibration I may end a Reading and send a refund for the remainder of the session. I simply ask that clients show me the same respect I show them during and leading up to our scheduled appointment.

CANCELLATION, RESCHEDULING AND REFUND POLICIES:

- 1.) Readings are scheduled and paid for in advance.
- 2.) Sessions may be cancelled with a 100% refund if the cancellation is in writing and with a 48 hour notice before the scheduled appointment. This gives me time to fill that opening with another client.
- 3.) Any sessions cancelled due to a non-emergency with less than a 48 hour notice are not eligible for a refund or a reschedule. I've had to implement this firm policy due to some clients repeatedly missing appointments with no notice, pushing my schedule out even further.
- 4.) To reschedule a session, please just simply give me a 48 hours notice via text or email so I have time to fill that opening with another client.
- 5.) Appointments missed with no notice not due to an emergency or illness are not refunded or rescheduled. Communication ensures this doesn't happen. I book very tightly and simply ask that clients share the same courtesy of respecting my time and energy the same way I respect theirs.

LEGAL DISCLAIMER:

By scheduling and/or paying for any services with Eagle Medicine Psychic Readings, LLC, Medium Christina Dawn Eagle and/or communicating with Christina you are attesting that you have read this legal disclaimer, the terms of service, code of ethics and scheduling policies. These terms are posted all over my website in the headers and footers visible on all pages. Further, you attest that you understand and willingly enter into, agree with and accept all of the following:

- 1.) You are 18 years of age or older. The only exception to this is if a parent requests the Reading for their child, the parent must also present for the Reading, the child wants the session and has also given me their consent.
- 2.) 100% accuracy is not guaranteed. While all of my Readings are conveyed in an honest and caring manner and I have a very high level of accuracy with a perfect 5 star rating on all platforms there is no guarantee of 100% accuracy from ANY psychic doing predictive Readings into the future. All souls have free will, make our own choices and decisions and experience unforeseen circumstances, like covid-19, that can and do change the course of the future. Above all Spirit always gives us free will. Here at Earth School we each have our own curriculum and some of the most important lessons happen when we're under pressure. I aim to help all my clients find and pursue the path of least resistance towards soul growth, healing, alignment and manifesting their true life purpose.
- 3.) Any information, communication and/or consultations with Christina Dawn Eagle is for spiritual, educational, inspirational and entertainment purposes only.

- 4.) All 1:1 Readings are 100% private and confidential. I never disclose who I've Read or what comes through with anyone but Spirit.
- 5.) No psychic or tarot reading, Reiki Healing or Intuitive Coaching or Soul Guidance given by Christina Dawn Eagle is intended to, nor should it EVER, take the place of professional services including but not limited to: medical, legal, financial, business and/or psychological or psychiatric specialists. The information and guidance offered in Readings, Reiki Healing Sessions, Soul Coaching and Mentoring programs is subject to each client's unique interpretation and should never be used to replace any advice from a doctor, lawyer, financial advisor, therapist or other professionally trained expert with a specialty.
- 6.) When clients have health questions, I take the perspective of a Reiki Master Healer, Medium and someone who can see chakras and auras. I am not a medical professional so I do not diagnose any physical, mental or emotional conditions. My gifts as a physical empath and psychic medium includes the abilities to sense, feel and see energy imbalances in the body that can lead to physical illnesses. Many physical illnesses start as long term chakra misalignment. Instead of diagnosing physical illnesses or conditions my specialty is the ability to read a client's chakra and auric energy health. I share what, if any, physical areas of the body I see energy imbalances that if unchecked may lead to severe physical illness in the future. If I sense that someone has heart problems I'd never say, "You're going to have a heart attack and die." That's not helpful, creates fear and is not something any true Healer would do. Instead I say things like, "This is a great time for you to get that physical, EKG, blood work, x-ray", or wherever in the body I see, intuitively feel or physically feel energy imbalances or blockages that have high potential to escalate into more severe physical illnesses down the road (if not experienced presently). I suggest they get checked out by a medical professional. I've been asked in Readings numerous times by clients battling stage 4 cancer if they were going to die from it. I don't lie to anyone. I'll admit that's one of the questions I take very seriously and put in a LOT of effort to get and ensure what I share is accurate. I could never forgive myself if I gave anyone bad information on such a serious life or death topic. I always feel sad when I see terminal, untreatable illnesses in my clients or their families. I don't take any health questions lightly. Knock on wood, everyone with stage 4 cancer that asked the question about surviving stage 4 cancer, I asked Spirit for an answer and was shown they were ALL alive and thriving many years into the future. When people are ill, their Spirit Guides also often suggest other chakra, aura, energy healing and holistic approaches to ensure they're fighting with the best weapons and tools available and take on the battle on more than one front. Fortunately many of them are very low cost or free. Remember the story of the Trojan horse? In early Greece, Odysseus thought of building a great wooden horse (the horse being the emblem of Troy), hiding an elite force inside and fooling the Trojans into wheeling the horse into the city as a trophy. Under the leadership of Epeius, the Greeks built the wooden horse in three days. The Trojans were filled with pride, fooled and paid no attention. Only seeing what was on the surface. That night the elite Greek forces crept out of the horse and opened the gates for the rest of the Greek army, which had sailed back under cover of night. The Greeks entered and destroyed the city of Troy, ending the war. The Trojans were not fighting the battle with the same tools and perspective, only seeing and responding to what was on the physical surface.

The chakras symbolize the Trojan horse. Everyone saw the horse. Just like so many with health issues not many consider that what is hidden from sight can defeat them. Perspective and where we look is important. Not everyone sees chakras and even more don't tap into their meaning, symptoms, alignment and healing powers. Many of us ignore imbalances until it's too late and their health is defeated. I'm happy to share that ALL of my clients who had stage 4 cancer and asked if they'd live are in remission, thriving and feeling lucky to have the second chance in life that almost slipped away. After years of experiencing those types of validations I trust 100% in Spirit giving me accurate information. I have no ethical issue with telling someone they're going to survive a serious illness or cancer. But that never means a patient should stop treatment if their physician thinks it's still the best course.

Cancer is a disease I can sense in people if in person by smell, or see if it's a video (or in person) session. With cancer or terminal illnesses I see black energy masses coagulating around the affected areas of their body as dense, blocked, attached or trapped energy. A western medical Dr. may have a patient that presents with a tumor. Western Dr.'s think the tumor itself is the source of illness. Energy Healers frequently see physical illness begins as chakra, chi or prana misalignment, blockages or trapped energy. Particularly with empaths. Instead of chasing tumors I offer my clients with health questions a different perspective to help them get to the true underlying source so the illness or condition doesn't return as it's been aligned energetically.

The good news is that by taking deliberate, proactive action to supplement chemo (for example) and other traditional medical treatments with non traditional energy healing modalities, many that have been used for thousands of years, gets right to the energetic source and the illness will leave. No one would show up to a gunfight with a slingshot. Fortunately chakra healing can be done with precision like a sniper. If I see that a cancer is likely terminal I ethically provide as much loving, honest compassionate support and help as much as possible within my professional skill set as an Energy Worker, Psychic Medium, Intuitive and Physical Empath and Reiki Master Healer to educate and guide them towards the right health care professionals and treatment plan for them. I help clients keep the feelings of fear and helplessness from taking over. Fear and survival are emotions related to the root chakra. It also decreases our immunity. Some cancer warriors have PTSD from surviving their cancer battles. I seek to empower and help clients be informed of all options and be proactive, selective and independent in their own healing. I share holistic, chakra healing and other alternative options so the client immediately feels like they're making a difference and are committed to making changes to ensure surviving not dying to supplement but NOT REPLACE what a medical Dr. suggests.

7.) Christina Dawn Eagle accepts no liability and/or responsibility for any actions and/or decisions any adult client chooses to take or make afterwards based on our consultation.

8.) You agree to absolutely indemnify and hold harmless Christina Dawn Eagle, her heirs, relatives, or professional partners that you may agree to work with along with me for special mentorship programs.
